Keynote Speaker

SARA VILLAGIO '04

Sara Villagio is Carnegie Hall's chief marketing officer, charged with overseeing all marketing strategy, creative, and customer service for the Hall's three iconic stages, including hundreds of performances each year that represent every kind of music as well as global music education and social impact programs.

Since joining the Hall in 2017, Sara introduced customer-curated subscription packages, led a holistic brand and visual identity update, acted as a critical leadership team member for the Hall's post-pandemic reopening in 2021, and developed a go-to-market strategy for Carnegie Hall+, a premium video subscription on-demand channel available nationwide on Prime Video Channels, the Apple TV app, and other providers.

Prior to Carnegie Hall, Sara enjoyed nearly 12 successful years at Jazz at Lincoln Center (JALC), where she was director of marketing. Rising through the ranks, she oversaw marketing efforts for JALC's three performance venues, the world-renowned Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis, and extensive education programs. Over the course of her tenure, Sara successfully grew JALC's concert-season ticket income, including major increases in subscriptions. Her greatest passion, however, continues to be partnering closely with artists—some established, and many more just emerging—and finding effective ways to share their creative vision with audiences.

Sara is a Syracuse University College of Visual and Performing Arts (VPA) music industry alumna and a graduate of the Arts & Business Council of New York's Arts Leadership Institute in Executive Education. She is also a member of the VPA Council. A resident of Jackson Heights, Queens, Sara loves taking in cultural offerings of all mediums across New York City. In addition to her love for arts and culture, she is a certified kettlebell coach, enabling her to share her love of strength training with others.

Student Speaker

JAEMON ANTHONY CROSBY '24

Jaemon Anthony Crosby is a graduating senior in VPA's Department of Drama from Philadelphia. He has spent the last semester living in New York City as a part of the Tepper Semester. He is an acting major and has a concentration in vocal performance. You may have seen him most recently in Syracuse Stage's production of A Christmas Carol, in which he played Scrooge's nephew Fred.

Outside of the drama department, Jaemon is a VPA Ambassador, Global Ambassador (London program), and Kessler Scholar. He has had the honor and pleasure of being able to take advantage of all the amazing opportunities that Syracuse has to offer and will miss it all dearly.

After college Jaemon plans to attend graduate school to receive a master's degree in acting. He recently found out that he is officially a Fulbright Scholarship recipient and will be attending the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts, studying classical acting in the fall. He is ready and excited to graduate, but Syracuse University will always hold a special place in his heart. He would like to thank God, his family, and close friends (you know who you are), whom he would not have made it this far without. Love you Mom and Dad!
